

Downtown Art Walk

If you're a lover of art and culture, Downtown Half Moon Bay is the place to be! This charming coastal town is known for its vibrant art scene, and an art walk is a wonderful way to experience all that Downtown has to offer.

Coastal Arts League, a nonprofit public art gallery and artist collective, is open to the public Thursday through Monday afternoons. With a new show in the Exhibition Gallery each month, they attract exceptional artists from across the Bay Area. Visit them to find original artwork at accessible prices.
300 Main Street • Coastside-Artists.com

Mirada ART on Main showcases the artwork of a rotating group of local artists working in a wide variety of mediums. Open Thursday-through Monday from 11am – 5pm with four to six artists on site representing their work, giving you the opportunity to forge personal relationships with the artists.
355 Main Street • Mirada-Art.com

Silk and Stone has an eclectic mix of handpainted silk paintings and wearable silk clothing, one of a kind handmade jewelry, felted wool-and-silk garments, and hand-knitted accessories made by local artists.
431 Main Street • silkandstonehmb.com

Jupiter & Main strives to bring authenticity and fun to an increasingly complicated and digital world through essential, everyday goods made with purpose. They exclusively feature Kevin Henney Fine Art Photography—a lush, immersive perspective of our incredible California Coastside.
432B Main Street • www.kevinhenney.gallery

Juno's Little Mercantile is a maximalist's paradise focusing on fashion, beauty, wellness and art. They're host to quarterly art openings featuring local classical painters. Juno's celebrates the femininity in all of us.
435 Main Street • @junosmerc

Nuance Fine Art is a recently opened artist studio/gallery featuring two classically trained artists Aina Clotas and Joe Altwer. After moving back from Spain, they opened a studio offering weekly classes, workshops, live model sessions and demonstrations as well as exhibiting their own work. This is a unique opportunity to come meet and see two artists at work in Half Moon Bay.
604 Main Street Suite E • NuanceFineArt.com

The Ocean Blue Art Vault is a collective made up of local artists from Northern California. All art mediums are welcome and invited to join. The collective is hosted each day by a local artist so you may very well see them creating when you visit. The Vault also has a "non profit" wall where all proceeds goes directly to that season's non profit.
643 Main Street • OceanBlueVault.com

M Stark Gallery features Bay Area artists whose work evokes the spirit of the West Coast and is in dialogue with contemporary fine art movements.
727 Main Street • MStarkGallery.com

Bamboo Hair & Body has featured an Artist in Residence program since 2006, hosting the inspiring works of many local artists in a wide variety of mediums. You are invited to stop by the Salon during business hours. All proceeds and inquiries go directly to the Artist.
799 Main Street • bamboohairandbody.com/Artist-in-Residence